Everyone Succeeds: Leadership Matters in action

Steve Margetts

Everyone Succeeds is the story of Torquay Academy, where head Steve Margetts has employed the Leadership Matters principles to turn round a failing school into one of the most improved in SW England in just three years.

It is an authentic and inspiring account of how great leadership at all levels really does make a difference in a school. In this tour-de-force, Steve has brought to life many of the principles that underpin the original Leadership Matters book.

In his characteristically self-deprecating way, he sets out a compelling narrative for school improvement in which he generously shares the secrets of Torquay Academy's success. Seriously rooted in the work of the likes of Doug Lemov, Paul Bambrick-Santoyo, and Simon Sinek, this is a thoughtful and reflective account of how Steve and his team have taken these seminal influences and translated them into sustained and embedded practice in their school.

‘In offering up their own journey, the school is not suggesting it has the definitive blueprint for school improvement. Instead, Steve has sought to share what has worked for them. It leaves the reader to do exactly what they did - intelligently filter the possibilities and then apply them with rigour and care.’
